Course Status: Not Started

This training module gives teachers and youth leaders practical information to establish a plan of action for the school and the teacher if suicide ideation is suspected or identified in a student. Suggestions for designing protocols of action to promote a safe environment and what actions to take for the teacher and the school at large are included. Prevention is the key and this module is a guide to being proactive in establishing the best possible attributes for the prevention of youth suicide or suicide attempts.
